SHORT BIO

Tom Peters is a Berlin-based DJ, producer, label owner and curator whose sound blends New York house, tribal rhythms, old-school tech house and the deeper edges of queer club culture into energetic, emotionally charged sets. A regular artist at Lab.Dance within the Berghain complex, he has performed at Berghain, Panorama Bar, SNAX, FC SNAX, Säule and Lab.Oratory, as well as Basement NYC, Battle Hymn, Horse Meat Disco, The Lot Radio, Feel It London, Mia Mao Paris, Mtkvarze Tbilisi and Macarena Club Barcelona.

Beyond DJing, he is the founder of DESSERT, the techno-focused sublabel ...is serving, and the BERLINCIAGAY platform, championing emerging artists and queer electronic music culture. As a producer, he has collaborated with Grammy Award-winning artist Honey Dijon and worked with artists including Steffi, Ketch, Zombies In Miami, DJ Babatr, Madame 007 and Kurilo.

Whether behind the decks for an intimate vinyl journey or a peak-time club set, Tom Peters delivers groove-driven performances rooted in rhythm, emotion and connection.
